++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Dry and windy start, turning snowy and icy into weekend.

This Evening and Tonight:
Largely dry into the night but remaining rather cloudy with strong winds, particularly along the coasts and over any high ground where gales are possible. Feeling cold, with frost developing widely. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Friday:
A dry and windy day, and although cloudy at first this breaks up into the afternoon to allow some sunny spells. Remaining cold, with a significant wind chill. Maximum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Windy with showers of snow Saturday. Slowly becoming milder on Sunday with some rain and potentially icy conditions at times. Milder by Monday with lighter winds too.
